HST May Accompany Ike On Trip

President Considering Dodd Idea

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A White House spokesman said Tuesday President Eisenhower has under consideration a suggestion that he invite former President Harry S. Truman to accompany him on his 11-nation overseas trip.

Acting White House press secretary Wayne Hawkes was asked at a news conference whether Eisenhower has under advisement the matter of asking his predecessor to go along on the trip starting Dec. 3, as Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) has urged.

"He has it under consideration, yes," Hawkes replied.

Early Reply

The President, Hawkes said, has not replied to Dodd or been in touch with Truman himself on the matter. He said he expects a reply will go to Dodd shortly.

At Truman's office in Independence a spokesman said the former president knew nothing about the proposal.

Sen. Dodd wrote Eisenhower Friday, suggesting he take along one or more Democrats who are prominently identified with international affairs. Dodd mentioned not only Truman but also former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Adlai E. Stevenson, who ran against Eisenhower for president in 1952 and 1956, and Rep. Chester Bowles, former ambassador to India.

Eisenhower is vacationing in Augusta trying to get in some rest and relaxation in preparation for the upcoming goodwill mission abroad.

JCS to Confer

Hawkes said the five members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff are flying down from Washington in the morning to confer with Eisenhower.

"They will discuss military plans and programs," Hawkes said.

Eisenhower had a session on the military budget Monday, with Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy and nine other military and financial advisers from Washington. The chairman of the Joint chiefs, Gen. Nathan F. Twining, sat in.

Eisenhower, who is attempting to get the 1961 budget off to shape before he takes off on his trip overseas, had another conference on spending plans Tuesday — an hour and 10-minute exploration of the problems and finance of space.

More Space Funds

The result may be a bigger budget for the National Aeronautics and Space Agency.

Congress came through with $500,575,000 for civilian space activities in the current fiscal year.

There was no direct word on any increase out of a conference between Eisenhower and NASA Administrator T. Keith Glennan. But Glennan came down from Washington try to make out a case for heavier spending in the realm of space exploration.

With the Soviet Union out in front in that field, the pressure is all in the direction of a budget boost for the 1961 fiscal year beginning next July 1.

Allied Leaders Launch Talks

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer began talks Tuesday to settle their differences. But the signs were that Britain was standing firm.

Flanked by advisers, the two long-bickering Allied leaders conferred at Macmillan's residence five hours after Adenauer's plane landed.

Sir Winston Is Taken Ill

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill was seized Tuesday night in another bout with his old chest trouble. He is two weeks short of his 85th birthday.

Friends and family alike insisted that his illness is not serious. But it sent him to bed and forced him to cancel a meeting with West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, who is visiting London.

Assembly May Adjourn Week Of Novemb. 30

HARRISBURG (AP)—Senate Republicans Tuesday set the week of Nov. 30 as a possible target date for the wind-up of the 1959 Legislature.

The date is subject to acceptance by the House Democratic majority and conditional to disposition of several controversial pieces of legislation. They range from increased school subsidies to revising the unemployment compensation law.

"When we adjourn, it will be sine die (finally)," Sen. James S. Berger, Republican floor leader said. "At this point, we're not planning any extended recess."

He referred to some pressure within the Senate GOP caucus to keep the 1959 Legislature in technical session until the 1960 session convenes Jan. 5.

The extended recess plan had been advanced as a means of blocking Democrats from taking over control of the Public Utility Commission and 200 patronage jobs that go with it.

The Senate is sitting on the nominations by Gov. David L. Lawrence of William F. O'Hara, Scranton, and Altoona Mayor Robert W. Anthony, to the $19,000 posts. As long as the Legislature is in session, they cannot assume office unless confirmed by the Senate.

Other GOP sources, who declined quotation by name, said they were reconciled to Democrats taking over the commission but without actual confirmation of O'Hara and Anthony.

"If we confirm, they will get 10-year terms," said one GOP senator. "What I think will happen is that we'll watch what goes on over there (the PUC) for a while."

The statement appeared to be a veiled threat that the Senate would reject confirmation outright if the patronage turnover or rate-regulating decisions are not to the Republican liking.

Five Killed In Explosion Aboard Barge

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A 225-foot sulphur barge undergoing minor repairs exploded at the Avondale Marine Ways in nearby Harvey Tuesday, killing five workmen and injuring four others.

The victims, all but one, welders employed by Avondale, were in the barge's pump room when the explosion rocked the shipyard.

The men all were from the New Orleans area.

Heater Made Here

(Georg Stabenow, vice president of International Boiler Works in East Stroudsburg, reported last night that a fire occurred on the barge last week when he was in New Orleans.

(He was there shortly after a thermal liquid heater manufactured at the IBW plant was installed on the barge.

(He called New Orleans last night and learned that yesterday's explosion occurred when the heater was shut down and was not the fault of the local equipment.

(The blast wrecked the heater and a diesel engine in the heater room, located just above the pump room where the explosion took place.)

Fire Breaks Out

Fire broke out on the barge, designed to bring liquid sulphur from offshore wells, but firefighters quickly brought the blaze under control.

Henry Z. Carter, vice president of Avondale, said the shipyard obtained a gas-free certificate from a chemist to do "hot work" on the barge, owned by the Freeport Sulphur Co.

"We don't know what went wrong," he said.

School Bill Moved Up For Debate

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House Tuesday moved up to debate a plan to establish minimum instructional hours in Pennsylvania's public schools.

Approved by the House Education Committee, the legislation would require a minimum of 900 hours of classroom instruction each year in junior and senior high schools.

The figure would be 900 hours for grades 4, 5 and 6 and 850 hours for grades 1, 2, and 3.

In school districts that just meet the existing state requirements for a minimum 180-day school term, it would mean 5 1/2 hours of classroom instruction daily, in addition to lunch periods and recesses, in junior and senior high school.

For grades 4, 5, and 6, and school day would have to be a minimum of 5 hours, and 4 1/2 hours for grades 1, 2 and 3.

Volcano Display

HONOLULU (AP)—Kilauea volcano put on a dazzling display Tuesday for scientists and scores of spectators. The eruption, in its 76th hour, sent lava cascading down the crater's inner wall from a huge vent near the top.

Driver Sought As Hit-Run Held After Second Accident

EAST STROUDSBURG POLICE have been looking for George Austin since Monday night when it was alleged his car hit a parked car in front of the Speedways store in East Stroudsburg.

Last night they found George Austin after his car struck a parked car only 50 yards from the site of the Monday crash. This time he had no chance to leave the scene.

East Stroudsburg Policeman Donald Quick and Clark Fralley reported Austin's car hit a parked car owned by Mrs. Elizabeth C. Schoupe, East Stroudsburg, R.D. 3, at 11:05 p.m. yesterday.

Irish Envoy Sending Son Back Home

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Irish ambassador said Tuesday he is sending his 21-year-old son home to Ireland. The son has been in repeated trouble with police, and last week his car killed a Negro widow.

In his announcement, Ambassador John J. Heame mentioned nothing about the difficulties his son David Patrick has had with the law over the past 2 1/2 years.

The envoy said he is sending his son home to continue his education there, adding that David will leave for Ireland in the near future. David, who has been studying at American University, has said "I hope to remain in school here."

This apparently ends a situation which was diplomatically uncomfortable for both the State Department and the Irish government.

Young David figured in four incidents of disorderly conduct dating back to May 1957—the latest only about five weeks ago—according to a report filed by police with the State Department.

In each instance, he was freed under diplomatic immunity.

Then, last Wednesday night, David's automobile struck and killed Jessie Hamlin as the 54-year-old domestic was crossing a street. Police quoted the ambassador's son as saying he ran into Mrs. Hamlin while trying to avoid another pedestrian. The victim was hurled 41 feet.

David claimed diplomatic immunity and escaped arrest in Mrs. Hamlin's death.

Although disturbed by the situation, U. S. officials showed no inclination to ask David to get out of the country. Apparently this was because of what such a request to go might mean to the practice of diplomatic immunity which U. S. diplomats, along with others, enjoy in other lands.

But it was expected the Irish ambassador's son would leave soon under his own power—an expectation borne out by the envoy's terse announcement.

'Children Of The Bible' Series Starts In Record

"CHILDREN OF THE BIBLE," a word and picture series of many of the children from Bible times, starts today on Page Two of The Daily Record and will continue until Christmas.

Art for the new 31 panel series is by Sam Patrick, well-known newspaper artist. An expert in portraiture, Patrick has been one of the nation's leading artists for more than 30 years.

Omar Garrison, who holds a Ph.D. from London University, is the author of the new religious feature. A serious student of all religions, Dr. Garrison's academic background includes extensive courses in theology and Bible history.

Both text and art of the "Children of the Bible" series was scrupulously screened by a panel of religious leaders of all faiths. The panel selected were, according to Scripture, the most important children mentioned in the Bible.

The panel of religious figures also found the contents to be completely acceptable to all denominations and creeds.

Seize Fifth Shipment Of Cranberries

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government acted Tuesday to seize another batch of contaminated cranberries—the fifth it has turned up.

The Department of Welfare said the tainted berries were from Washington State, the first found to have been grown in that state. Previously, contaminated berries were traced to Oregon and Wisconsin.

The action was announced as the cranberry industry prepared to unveil Wednesday a plan it hopes will assure Americans they can eat cranberries by Thanksgiving with full assurance of their safety.

Removing Tainted Berries

The plan, polished up behind closed doors, is aimed at removing any contaminated berries from the market at a speedier pace.

The contaminated berries located Tuesday were described as a portion of the first of two lots of tainted berries from the 1959 Pacific crop which touched off the nationwide testing program last week.

Through late Tuesday FDA laboratories across the nation had tested a total of 440 samples, of which 435 showed no residues of the weed killer.

The lots cleared to date total about 2,402 tons.

TV Celebrity Dick Clark Under House Investigation

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A House investigator is checking information about Dick Clark, television disc jockey idol of the teenagers who has been ordered by his network to drop all outside business interests.

The American Broadcasting Co. insisted that the disc jockey discontinue all connections with record manufacturing and music publishing.

Stays With ABC

While Clark declined immediate comment, his manager, Marvin Josephson, confirmed Tuesday that Clark, 29, star of "American Bandstand" would stay with ABC.

And in Washington, Robert W. Lishman, chief counsel of the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee, said an investigator has been sent to Philadelphia to check on information about Clark.

"It is the sort of thing we have to check," he said. "It would be very interesting if it is true," Lishman said.

He said the information was generally concerned with the subcommittee's investigation of practices used in promoting music.

Given Choice

The ABC network had given Clark a choice of his outside interests or keeping the "American Bandstand" show and two others on which he serves as master of ceremonies, a Saturday night variety show and a Sunday night panel show.

After finishing his "American Bandstand" program Tuesday, Clark would only say to newsmen: "I can't at this time make any statement. I don't want to walk away or run away from you but I just can't say anything now."

Newsman threw question after question at him but Clark smiled and declined to confine his manager's statement that he would divest himself of his record and sidelines.

ABC issued a statement in New York saying he had "examined all evidence available to us" on Clark's various shows and had concluded its investigation with "renewed faith and confidence in Dick Clark's integrity."

Others Probed

ABC said the network is also investigating all disc jockey programs on ABC-owned stations.

ABC said Clark had "volunteered to divest himself of other music interests in line with a new ABC policy."

Disc Jockey Quit $60,000 Job Because Of Pressure Of Payola And Commercials

NEW YORK (AP)—A disc jockey says he quit a $60,000-a-year radio job in Detroit because of incessant commercials, subservience to ratings and pressure of payola.

Writing in the current issue of Life magazine, Ed McKenzie, formerly of Detroit station WXYZ, says:

"Because of the charts that are put together by numbers of music trade publishers that rate the popularity of records, I had to play music on my program that I would never have played otherwise."

"And the charts are phony because of the most disgusting part of the radio industry — payola."

Payola is described by McKenzie as "offering disc jockeys cash to play records they wouldn't ordinarily play."

The article continues: "I never took payola because to me it was completely dishonest, but I was often approached by small companies who were hiring a tough time getting their stuff on the air."

"They would say, 'Well, how much do you want to ride this record for the next three weeks?' They might offer $100 for a one-week ride, which would have meant playing the record several times a day to make it popular."

"Many disc jockeys are on the weekly payroll of 5 to 10 record companies, which can mean a side income of $25,000 to $50,000 a year."

"Radio station managers are aware of all the bad practices of payola, but I guess they take the attitude that the kid isn't making much salary here, so if he can make a little on the side, God bless him."

McKenzie says he quit WXYZ last spring and now is with a small daytime station, Detroit-Monroe WQTE.

New Figure Announced By Authority

COST per front-foot for the construction of the proposed East Stroudsburg sewer system has been placed at $3. Dr. Frederick Jones, chairman of the Municipal Authority told members of the Taxpayers Assn. at a meeting at the Jack Hineline home last night.

Previous estimates of the cost per front-foot had been given as high as $8.

Overall cost of the system, Dr. Jones reported, would be $2,760,000, which will include the building of the sewage treatment works plus the sewer lines, and interest and engineering charges, and would also include rights-of-way, legal and bond costs.

This final figure, he said, was within $10,000 of the most recent estimates, and $15,000 lower than the original bond proposal.

Corner Properties

Dr. Jones said the figures were given by the financing authorities during the meeting held with the authority this week.

When asked as to those people owning corner properties, Dr. Jones said the owner would be charged the full front footage, plus only a percentage of the second frontages on the side street. He cited as an example that the first 100 feet on the side street might be given free, while the owner would pay for the remainder. He stressed this was only an example, and was not to be construed as the final word on corner properties.

The costs per front-foot, Dr. Jones said, could be paid by the homeowner over a three-to-five year period. The reason for this, he said, was to pay off the short-term bonds which are carried at a lower interest rate.

The gain in these payments from the property holders, Dr. Jones said, would be about $800,000.

$150 Hook-On Charge

The cost of hooking on to the street sewer main, he went on, would be about $150.

Rental charges would be approximately two and one-half to three times the present amount of the homeowner's water rental. Average rental for the sewer, he said, would be about $62-63 per year.

The rental, however, would not be paid until the house system is actually hooked up to the sewer main and in operation.

Insofar as the disposition of the cesspools in the borough would be concerned, it would be the responsibility of the individual property owner to do with the cesspool as he wished, Dr. Jones said.

The amount of interest on the bonds, said Dr. Jones responding to a question, has been placed at four percent on the short term issue, and slightly less than five percent on the long term bonds.

Necessity High

When asked by Zigmunt Viechnicki if the costs of operating the system would not eventually exceed the amount specified in the figures presented, Burgess Jesse Flory replied that the figures given by the engineers were necessarily high, and would be lower once the system is finished. Additional moneys set aside in contingency funds would also save off any increase in sewer rentals, he said.

In listing the total costs of the entire system, Dr. Jones said the present sewer firm in East Stroudsburg would be purchased at a cost of $750,000.

When asked if this was necessary, Dr. Jones said the system would still be in operation for two years, and during that time would earn $3,200 per year, or $6,400 total. Beside this, he said, a building owned by the company has been estimated by the engineers to be worth $1,000 so the final cost would be about $800,000.

But, he said, several of the largest lines of the sewer firm have been pronounced usable in the new system by the engineers, and will be utilized in the new sewer system.

Some Not Covered

Certain sections of the borough, Flory said, would not be covered by the system, and he pointed out that it would not be feasible, for example, to run the line beyond the hill on E. Broad St. since the cost of constructing an additional pumping station at that point would be prohibitive.

His Early Life Carefree

"Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved."
—John XIII:28

By Patrick and Garrison

THE boy John, who was to become the beloved disciple of Jesus, grew up in the town of Capernaum on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee.

His father, Zebedee, was a prosperous fisherman who owned his own ship and derived a steady income from the sale of his catch to a Greek firm of fish-pickers.

John and his elder brother James lived a carefree life, often accompanying the fishermen on their night voyages in search of a good haul.

He lived in a substantial house constructed of black volcanic rock. The family had enough money to employ two servants to do the household chores.

When John was of school age, he was sent in the care of his brother to the school adjoining the Capernaum synagogue. There he was taught to read Hebrew from a scroll that was placed before him and the older boys of his class.

His teacher was a scholarly but stern rabbi, who required the class to recite the Law in perfect Hebrew. This was no easier for John than it is today for Jewish boys who attend religious school, for outside class he spoke Aramaic.

John was also taught how to write, both in Hebrew and in the common tongue, Aramaic. Although he was probably not taught Greek, he may have learned the tongue from the commercial travelers who came to his city on business. Capernaum was situated on one of the main routes between Egypt and Babylon, and important enough as a trade center for the Romans to maintain a customs house there.

It was a long long journey in both time and space from the boy John's room overlooking the wimpy blue sea of Galilee, to the dungeon on Pat-mos where he saw the remarkable visions that he set down in the Book of Revelation. But no doubt the same spirit moved in the lad as he sat with his family in the temple on the Sabbath and listened to the sacred words chanted in unison: "Listen, O Israel, the Lord is our God, the Lord alone."

Mrs. Marjorie Cron Davis Helps Mate Check Fallout

DURHAM, N. C.—A former East Stroudsburg girl, now the wife of a Duke University graduate student, spent the Summer working with her husband high in the mountains of western North Carolina collecting data on atomic fallout's effects on vegetation for the Atomic Energy Commission.

Mrs. Marjorie Davis, nee Cron, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cron, live at Cherry Lane, East Stroudsburg RD 3, spent several months in a tent living in the mountains far from even the simplest comforts of what we would term "civilization."

Her husband, Mark Davis, was working on a report to be submitted to the AEC to advance man's knowledge of what happens when fallout strikes the earth's surface. This is of tremendous importance in all scientific circles.

Miles From Store

In addition to keeping records for official use, Mrs. Davis also kept a personal diary of their life in the woods.

And woods were what the area was, exactly. To obtain food, the couple had to trek several miles to reach a store. Laundry facilities were a nearby stream, and mail pickup was also a long distance away.

Although the inconveniences were many, the two reported they enjoyed their existence very much.

"We were sorry the Summer had to draw to a close," Davis remarked later.

Marjorie was graduated from Pocono Township High School in 1951 and from Cedar Crest College, Allentown, in 1955. She then taught in New Hampshire and North Carolina.

Billboard Controls May Go Over To 1960 Session

Wade Sees Action Put Off To Later

HARRISBURG (AP) — The chairman of the Senate Highway Committee Tuesday predicted action on proposed billboard control legislation would be delayed until the 1961 session of the Legislature.

"I believe that the Senate will not take action this session on the proposal, preferring instead to have the Joint State Government Commission conduct a study of the over-all problem and report back to the 1961 session," said Sen. George N. Wade (R-Cumberland).

Wade made his comment after a public hearing on House-approved legislation that would allow the Commonwealth to pick up a federal bonus by prohibiting construction of billboards along new interstate highways.

Urges Steps

Francis A. Pitkin, executive director of the State Planning Board had urged at the hearing that immediate action be taken on the legislation.

"I can see no reason for delaying action for another two years," he said. "The problem has been under consideration by the Legislature for a score of years, and the facts involved are readily at hand."

A representative of the Outdoor Advertising Assn., however, endorsed the idea of a Joint State Government Commission study and said the association would help work for a "fair and reasonable regulatory bill."

Under Attack

Atty. Samuel A. Schreckengast Jr., Harrisburg, told the committee the proposed legislation would be "indiscriminate confiscation of property rights" and would result in reduced sales and services and cause unemployment in Pennsylvania.

Pitkin, on the other hand, said the legislation would "not reduce the number of billboards in Pennsylvania one iota" because the highways affected are yet to be built or are in the process of construction.

The advertising industry can build "all the billboards they want in appropriate areas," he said, "but they are clearly inappropriate in rural scenic places."

Occupational disease benefits—The House passed, 198-0, a plan to increase maximum weekly occupational disease benefits from $37.50 to $42.50. The Senate must concur in a House change making the increase effective 60 days after it becomes law, instead of immediately.

Sunday liquor sales—The Senate Rules Committee, reversing its previous action, sent to the floor a proposal to hold local referenda in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh on permitting hotel restaurant liquor sales between 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. on Sundays.

Driver's licenses—A joint House-Senate conference committee was set up to work out differences between conflicting plans to increase motor vehicle operator's licenses.

The House version would increase the present $1-a-year fee to $4 for a two-year license. The Senate revised the measure to boost it to $5 for two years.

School subsidies—Chairman Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill) of the Senate Education Committee said it would be touch-and-go as to whether the Senate would approve a $5-million-dollar increase in state aid to schools.

It was passed by the House on the basis that a proposed tax on personal property such as stocks, bonds and mortgage investments would finance it. But the Senate has turned down that levy and Republicans are weighing whether to pass the school bill without taxes to accompany it or put over the entire problem until next year.

Final adjournment—Rep. Stephen McCann, Democratic floor leader, said he hoped Senate Republicans would change their minds and agree to adjourn finally at the end of this week.

Plane Shows No Evidence Of Explosion

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP) — A Civil Aeronautics Board official said Tuesday it was impossible to determine if there was an explosion on the National Airlines plane that crashed in the Gulf of Mexico with the loss of 42 lives.

Five of the nine bodies recovered from Monday's crash were identified.

Chester Collar of Miami, Fla., head man of the CAB investigating committee, said his group had no evidence of an explosion on the four-engine, DC7B, either before or after it hit the water.

Little Evidence

"It would be impossible for anyone to determine anything with the evidence we have," he said. He also explained that all personal effects and debris from the crash scene had been impounded and placed under guard pending further investigation.

The plane, part of an exchange service with Delta and American Airlines, was only about a half-hour out of Mobile International Airport at New Orleans when it crashed into the fog-topped gulf, 25 miles off the southeastern Louisiana coast.

Court Rules Against Mary Bellotti's Claim To $5,000,000 Of Elias Cohen's Estate

MARIE A. Bellotti, 37, has lost her claim to half of the $10,000,000 estate of her late employer, Elias A. Cohen, 72. Surrogate S. Samuel DiFalco, who heard the case in New York City, said, "Her story is one that strains credulity."

The case apparently marks the end of Miss Bellotti's bid to be recognized as the secret wife of the wealthy real estate man, who died July 25, 1952, while on a vacation in Israel.

Miss Bellotti had carried her fight into Monroe County Court by charging Rev. William F. Wunder, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in East Stroudsburg, with subornation of perjury and conspiracy to suborn.

A grand jury refused to indict on either count. Basis of the charges were Miss Bellotti's claim that Rev. Wunder induced Herbert G. Bonser, former East Stroudsburg justice of the peace, to change his story about witnessing a so-called contractual marriage between Cohen and Miss Bellotti.

Marie Bellotti

The case decided this week in New York City was on Miss Bellotti's claim that Walter Cohen, brother of the dead man, induced her to sign a release relinquishing any share in the estate in return for $20,000.

Miss Bellotti claimed Cohen's brother told her he couldn't find a marriage certificate that was supposed to be in the dead man's safe and that without it she could not prove a claim.

Walter Cohen testified that he never spoke to Miss Bellotti about such matters.

Surrogate DiFalco ruled Miss Bellotti "has failed to establish that Walter Cohen or any other respondent made the representations which petitioner claims were made to her."

The case was not concerned with the marriage, but only with her charge of fraud. If she had been able to prove that, she would have also had to prove the marriage in order to share in the estate.

Miss Bellotti lives at 42 Custer Road, Yonkers, Cohen formerly lived at 20 W. 86th St. in Manhattan.

10 Tons Of Weapons Found In Routine Traffic Check

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Ten tons of assorted weapons, including a potent set of 50 caliber anti-aircraft guns, caused quite a stir when they turned up here during a routine check of truck traffic.

Antiques, truck driver Ronald Mabey explained. He told authorities that was how the arms were described to him when they were loaded on his truck at Oconomowoc, Wis.

Machine Guns

East Cleveland police, who stopped the truck Monday night because it was overloaded, agreed that the Gatling guns, produced during the Civil War era, might be called antiques, but what about those four 50 caliber machine guns mounted on an electrically operated revolving platform?

Mabey, 45, had no bill of lading but told police he was hauling the arms from Datal Industries of Oconomowoc to the Service Armament Co., Bogota, N.J.

The head of Service Armament, Valmore Forgett, contacted at his office, said the arms were registered with the U.S. Treasury and that he had merely neglected to give Mabey a bill of lading.

He called his firm the nation's largest importer and exporter of deactivated war trophy firearms.

Forgett said the arms being shipped from Datal, a firm he recently acquired, were worth nearly $100,000.

Private Collection

The shipment apparently included weapons from the private collection of David Tallmadge, Oconomowoc socialite now undergoing a mental examination at Wisconsin's State Hospital for the Criminal Insane. Tallmadge's wife told police at Oconomowoc her husband had owned Datal but recently sold the firm and his gun collection to Forgett.

George Mulvanity, head of the enforcement division here for the Treasury Department's alcohol and tobacco tax unit, said he didn't know whether any violation of law was involved but said he would send a report to Washington.

Honesdale Boy Dies In Hospital

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A three-year-old Honesdale, Pa., boy died Tuesday in St. Christopher's Hospital for Children where he had undergone major heart surgery to repair a congenital defect.

The boy, Michael Bunting, was operated on Monday. The surgery took five hours. During this period his heart was stopped for 105 minutes during which a heart-lung machine performed the vital functions.

The hospital said 15 pints of blood were used, of which five were donated by persons who traveled here from Honesdale.

Boilers Built Here Too Big For Bridges

NEW YORK (AP) — A huge boiler being trucked here from East Stroudsburg, Pa., has finally found a bridge it can use to cross from Manhattan into Brooklyn.

Triborough bridge officials threw up a "no more" sign after two companion boilers had crossed.

Huge beams had to be removed to get the boilers through and traffic was disrupted.

The boilers weigh 95,420 pounds each. They were 11 feet wide, 50 feet long and 15 feet above the platform of the trucks transporting them. They were built at the International Boiler Works plant in East Stroudsburg.

Center Lanes

Permission finally was obtained from the Department of Public Works for the third boiler to cross the Manhattan bridge. Measurements showed the truck would have adequate clearance by using the two center lanes.

All three boilers will be loaded on the freighter Zion for transportation to the Hadassah Hebrew University medical center now being erected on the western outskirts of Jerusalem.

Driver Avoids Hitting Car, Strikes Pole

NO ONE was injured and slight damage resulted from a car sideswiping a telephone pole on Stroudsburg's W. Main St. at the borough line at 4:35 p.m. yesterday.

Leonard M. Berger, Kunkletown, RD 1, told police he was following a car driven by Arthur Kymer, Jr., 1741 Rosebriar Lane, Stroudsburg, when Kymer turned on his right turn signal, then turned left.

Berger swung his car from the highway to avoid a collision with Kymer's vehicle and hit the pole. Kymer told investigating officers he accidentally turned the wrong signal on.

Aid Voted By Committee

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee Tuesday approved $554,892 in appropriations for various institutions around the state.

None of the money was included in Gov. David L. Lawrence's budget request, but was added by agreement of House and Senate leaders during their recent discussions on final spending proposals to be authorized during the 1959-61 biennium.

Over 8 million dollars was thus tacked on to the governor's budget by the legislators.

Largest of the grants approved by the committee and sent to the floor for further action was $250,000 for Dickinson Law School. All but a $25,000 appropriation for the George Jr. Republic School in Grove City, Mercer County, have been approved by the Senate.

The committee did not make any changes in the Senate-approved amounts. The George request was trimmed from $100,000, however.

Time-Cost Study Approved By Children's Aid Group; Possible Deficit Indicated

THE CHILDREN'S AID Society of Monroe County yesterday authorized a time-cost study of the agency. The study, which will take at least a year to complete, will provide the agency with accurate data on the actual cost for the care of each child, whether in foster homes or in protective care.

Financial matters dominated the well-attended meeting held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel with Mrs. R. Frederick Jones presiding. Dr. LeRoy Koehler, chairman of the finance committee, presented the annual audit, which was approved.

He also presented the financial picture with the society, now running at a deficit. The finance committee had studied expenses in detail and had found only minor savings which could be made, he reported. Possible cuts in Community Chest allotment if the 1959 campaign fails to reach its goal pose an additional threat.

Letters To Newcomers

Mrs. William Wells reported on letters which are being sent to newcomers in the community to acquaint them with the work of the agency. The resignations of John Lesoine and Mrs. Edward Doney from the board were accepted with regret.

Mrs. Ben L. Fansler is in charge of the Christmas arrangements for foster children who will be having December meetings with their parents at the Children's Aid offices. Directors will furnish decorations and cookies for the holiday season.

A. J. Molitor, executive director, analyzed what had happened to applications of foster homes and the continuing need for more foster homes in the area. He reported 56 children in care outside of their own homes; 21 children under protective care; seven under pre-placement study; and five in other categories.

NATIONAL CHRISTMAS SEALS CHAIRMAN—Red Schoendienst (above) is chairman of the 1959 Christmas Seal drive for funds. Schoendienst, one of the reasons the Braves won the 1958 National League championship, plans to be back at the keystone sack for Milwaukee next season.

State Senate Plans Action On Compensation Measure

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. James S. Berger, Republican floor leader of the Senate, said Tuesday the Senate planned to meet through Friday this week and return Nov. 30 to complete action on the administration's unemployment compensation bill.

Berger said the Senate Rules Committee already has agreed to changing an increase in benefits and the effective date.

As passed by the House, the present $35 maximum weekly payment would jump to $40 next July 1 and to $42 a year later. Under the Senate amendments, the payment would climb to $40 next July 1 and stay there.

Other legislative developments:

Occupational disease benefits—The House passed, 198-0, a plan to increase maximum weekly occupational disease benefits from $37.50 to $42.50. The Senate must concur in a House change making the increase effective 60 days after it becomes law, instead of immediately.

Sunday liquor sales—The Senate Rules Committee, reversing its previous action, sent to the floor a proposal to hold local referenda in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh on permitting hotel restaurant liquor sales between 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. on Sundays.

Driver's licenses—A joint House-Senate conference committee was set up to work out differences between conflicting plans to increase motor vehicle operator's licenses.

The House version would increase the present $1-a-year fee to $4 for a two-year license. The Senate revised the measure to boost it to $5 for two years.

School subsidies—Chairman Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill) of the Senate Education Committee said it would be touch-and-go as to whether the Senate would approve a $5-million-dollar increase in state aid to schools.

It was passed by the House on the basis that a proposed tax on personal property such as stocks, bonds and mortgage investments would finance it. But the Senate has turned down that levy and Republicans are weighing whether to pass the school bill without taxes to accompany it or put over the entire problem until next year.

Final adjournment—Rep. Stephen McCann, Democratic floor leader, said he hoped Senate Republicans would change their minds and agree to adjourn finally at the end of this week.

Plane Shows No Evidence Of Explosion

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP) — A Civil Aeronautics Board official said Tuesday it was impossible to determine if there was an explosion on the National Airlines plane that crashed in the Gulf of Mexico with the loss of 42 lives.

Five of the nine bodies recovered from Monday's crash were identified.

Chester Collar of Miami, Fla., head man of the CAB investigating committee, said his group had no evidence of an explosion on the four-engine, DC7B, either before or after it hit the water.

Little Evidence

"It would be impossible for anyone to determine anything with the evidence we have," he said. He also explained that all personal effects and debris from the crash scene had been impounded and placed under guard pending further investigation.

The plane, part of an exchange service with Delta and American Airlines, was only about a half-hour out of Mobile International Airport at New Orleans when it crashed into the fog-topped gulf, 25 miles off the southeastern Louisiana coast.

Sworn In House

HARRISBURG (AP) — Joseph H. Goldstein, 71, of Warren, was sworn in Tuesday as a member of the House of Representatives. He will fill the unexpired term of the late Allen M. Gibson of Warren County, who died May 5. Like Gibson, Goldstein is a Republican.

Novel Home Decoration Plans Ready For The Householder's Holidays Now

THIS novel Christmas decoration extends a colorful greeting to all who pass, whether by day or night. Evergreens, Christmas ornaments and outdoor lights, plus perforated cardboard letters, combine to simplify making this gay salute to a most festive season.

The full size pattern offered below simplifies cutting out the big letters from cardboard. The pattern also locates position of lights and ornaments to insure success for your efforts.

The letters, measuring approximately 26" high by 50" wide, are easy to cut out. After tracing each full size letter, each is cut out with a coping or jig saw, then fastened to a frame exactly as the step-by-step directions suggest. While the pattern recommends using strings of outdoor Christmas lights, intertwined with strings of evergreen and Christmas ornaments, an even more striking effect can be achieved by flooding the Noel Greeting at night.

Actually, anyone who can follow simple directions should be able to build this decoration. The cardboard should not cost more than $1.50.

You can probably find enough ornaments and outdoor lights to complete the projects. Simplified directions tell how to make as well as assemble the display. Since all the lights, ornaments and evergreens are fastened to the hardboard with soft copper wire, the most important tool you'll need, outside of a coping saw, is a good pair of pliers.

Send 50c in coin or money order, (no stamps please) for Noel Christmas Greeting, Pattern No. 531, to The Daily Record, P. O. Box 215, Pleasantville, New York. Send 35c additional for 64 page catalog illustrating over 300 other build it yourself projects.

THE ANNUAL Printing Industry sales volume is approximately nine billion dollars.

Neat, Trim Home For Families

NEAT and trim, this hip-roofed ranch home is designed for young and old alike. The perfect economy house, it is long and low, but not too narrow. Adjusted to stock material sizes with not an inch of wasted space or material, H-558 is the ideal design for the budget-minded.

Exterior is a pleasing combination of brick veneer and board and batten. Wide overhangs and low sweeping brick sills provide, ground-hugging lines.

No trick effects are employed in the interior. Room planning is simple but effective as befits the tailored, tasteful exterior. A sheltered brick stoop introduces the main entrance. Inside, the spacious (21' x 12') living room-dining greets and impresses visitors. Corner windows promise good ventilation and superior daylighting. The homemaker will also value the amount of unbroken wall area for varied furniture arrangements.

Exceptionally well designed for convenience and efficiency is the "L" shaped kitchen. Each work center is equipped with adequate cabinet and counter space and there's still plenty of room left over for a standard room size breakfast nook.

Adjacent to both kitchen and side entrance is a lavatory. The main bath is in the home's sleeping area. Modern in every respect, it is equidistant from all three bedrooms.

The master bedroom, fronting the home has a bank of high windows and good wardrobe provisions. All of the bedrooms can accommodate twin beds if desired as their dimensions are especially liberal.

This plan conforms to general FHA, CA and Building Code requirements. The plan contains 1,186 sq. ft., 13,046 cu. ft. Your builder or material supplier can give you the average cost per square foot in your area.

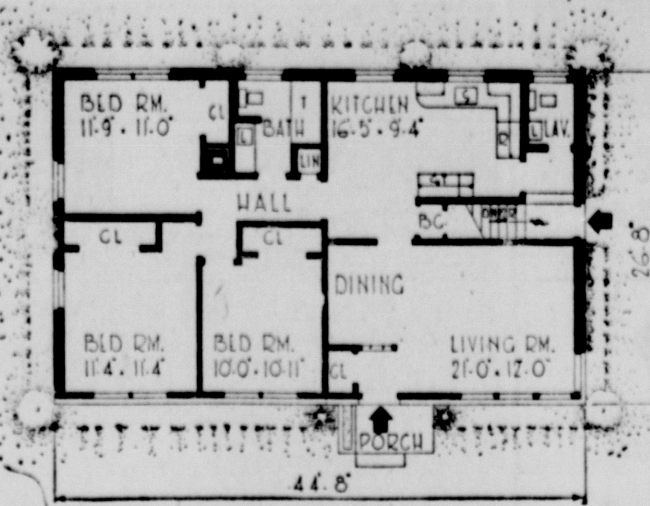

Complete building plan, including Detail Sheet, Material List, and Specification Guide for Des. No. H-558 may be purchased for $9.75 for 1st set; 2 for $18.25; 3 for $26.35; 4 for $33.75. Start Readyng Right Away For 'Operation Santa Claus'

Vivian Brown
AP Newsfeatures Writer

WHY NOT START "Operation Santa Claus" now, and enjoy the festivities that Yuletide brings to the home?

It's the last minute cramming that wears out the homemaker, and the million little jobs that could have been done long before that leaves her ragged.

It's not too early to put your house in order right now, taking it in easy strides, and getting everything ready so you can enjoy the shopping, gift wrapping, tagging and all the parties that go with the holidays.

Who's for cleaning curtains, draperies? Do the job now. If you're a stickler for freshness, hang the washed or drycleaned window hangings on a hanger in the closet until time to use them. Wash the windows and sills while you are about it. These can always get last minute touch-ups, but the main cleaning job will be done.

Prepare Now

Are you planning to use all the silver you own during the holiday festivities? If so, get every last silver ash tray or vegetable dish polished. Wrap each piece in polyethelene film tightly, put away until the big day. Awkward pieces could be sealed by tape.

How about that good china that is used only for those special events? Wash it all in soapy water. If you don't do this job now, you may try to get by without using that very special turquoise that will put the finishing touch on the holiday table. If the closet where these dishes are stored is used often, wrap all the washed china in dish towels and put back in place.

What about that cut glass that is getting increasingly popular for table setting? It's just as glamorous as it was in grandma's day, and many pieces are almost indispensable to a festive dining table. The old celery, pickle, and olive dishes are just right for today's service, and there are few modern pieces that can equal them in design and usefulness. Compote, footed pie dishes and cake plates are other useful pieces that are easy to blend with today's china. And don't forget about your stemware for the table. Shine it up, protect it from dust, and have it ready.

Odds And Ends, Too
This is a good time to stock up on candles, to locate the tree stand, to take an inventory of the Christmas ornaments. It's a fine time also to locate a spot for those gifts you purchase early so that the family will not be tempted to peek. Where will the Christmas tree stand? Why not bend some heavy

Painting Galvanized Steel OK

NEW YORK (AP)—Galvanized steel can be painted successfully if certain precautions are taken.

How to achieve satisfactory results is described in a new booklet, "Painting Galvanized Steel," put out by the American Iron and Steel and American Zinc Institutes.

There are several good reasons for painting the zinc-coated steel: to extend the period of protection given by the zinc coating, to improve its appearance, and to reflect heat after age has dulled the reflecting quality of the steel.

The booklet gives these suggestions:
1. If possible, wait six months to permit weathering.
2. Brush the surface with a wire brush. Remove any grease or oil films with mineral spirits or detergent and water.
3. Apply a coat of metallic zinc paint or other primer especially designed for galvanized steel.

4. After the primer coat is thoroughly dry, apply a coat of good exterior white paint that is recommended by the primer manufacturer. Some paints are not compatible with certain primers.

If you wish to cool the interior of a galvanized steel building, paint the roof and siding white.

The booklet may be obtained by writing American Iron and Steel Institute, 150 E. 42 St., New York, N. Y.

ABOUT one-third of the world's total coffee consumption is used by the people of the United States.

Questions Answered On Finishes

QUESTION: I read recently in your column about using wood filler on hardwoods. I have an unpainted maple bureau, but a friend of mine says maple should not be filled. Isn't maple a hardwood?

ANSWER: Yes, maple is a hardwood. And your friend is right; it does not require a filler, since it is a very close-grained wood. The notation in this column said only that wood filler is used on some of the open-grained hardwoods, such as oak, and that even then it is a matter of preference. Some people prefer to retain the open-grained appearance of oak and so refrain from using a wood filler on it.

QUESTION: I am planning to build an economical swimming pool. It seems to me that it can be done with gravel concrete blocks. If so, what are the steps to be taken to make it sturdy and waterproof so that it will not crack during the winter?

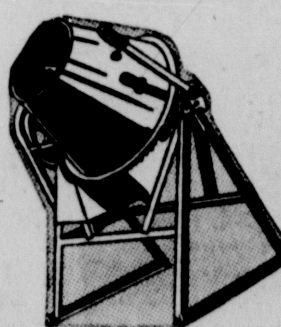

ANSWER: We had to call on an engineer of a swimming pool corporation to help us with this one. He said that the pool certainly can be built with gravel concrete blocks, but that a wire mesh should be placed between every course of blocks. The inside surface should be plastered with two coats of waterproof plaster. Twelve-inch blocks are recommended, with a vinyl spray liner placed on top of the plaster for easier maintenance.

QUESTION: Can lacquer be used in a sprayer? Or is it necessary to brush it on?

ANSWER: The best finishing jobs with lacquer are done by spraying. In purchasing lacquer, ask for spraying lacquer or brushing lacquer, depending on how you are using it.

Just Between Us

—by Bobby Westbrook

Brr! What tender things we mortals be. The sudden drop in temperature and the brisk breeze caught a lot of us away from home with our light topcoats and minus our gloves, and such a miserable lot we were, shivering and shaking and turning blue.

Rabbits, squirrels and even the family cat seem to fare much better without running home to put on more furs. Although that may not be from choice. I've noticed that, come the first cold snap, all the field mice in the neighborhood move in bag and baggage and with their cousins and their aunts.

Heavens knows there's plenty of room for all of us, and it's a shame to have all that heat going to waste in an empty house, but while reason might condone a peaceful co-existence, both training and temperament require an all-out war.

Up until now, I've always won out and the mice have had to move back to their burrows. Well, they are better able to stand it than I. Especially in these days.

People do seem to suffer more from the cold than they used to, but that's largely because our homes are more comfortable and more evenly heated than ever before. In my childhood, came the winter and everybody put on their winter underwear, long for their parents, and were protected from drafts, indoors or out.

About ten minutes in long underwear now indoors—particularly at a club meeting at the Stroud Community House for instance—and we're all hot and sweating and getting heat rash.

Well-Written Stories Will Find Publisher

By Anne Heywood
Of all the false legends, I think the most devastating one is that entertained by most amateur writers:

"If only I knew the right people, editors and things like that, I know my work would be bought."

Other Gripes
"It's every bit as good as plenty that get published, but I guess you have to live in New York and be friendly with publishers."

You could be the daughter or girl friend of the wife of a powerful publisher, but if your book was a real dud he wouldn't publish it. Moreover, if your book is salable, and if you present it, neatly typed, to the kind of publisher who publishes books of that kind, you will eventually find a buyer.

Depends On Quality
It's true that you may have to send it to a good many places. But if it's a really salable book, it'll be bought.

I wasn't always so sure of this. For a long time I read manuscripts for people and made recommendations, not like an agent but as a vocational counselor.

Poor Material
I was flabbergasted at some of the material. Some of it was badly spelled, badly written, intrinsically uninteresting and to-tally unsalable. Yet the people who wrote it were convinced that it was marvelous.

"All I need," they would assure me angrily, "is contacts!" The tragedy is, to me, that these people have a real talent for something. In my lifetime I've never met a person devoid of any talent. But they will never find it as long as they refuse to listen to reason about

Luther League Makes Wreaths For Advent

Tannersville — The Luther League of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Tannersville, will fill Christmas stockings to be used for inner mission services to patients in hospitals and institutions to make their Christmas happier.

At the meeting in the Sunday school with John Woodling presiding, a list of needed articles was given to each member. They were asked to bring them to the next meeting.

Laura Horn was in charge of the devotions and the program which was devoted to making advent wreaths. The members helped make two wreaths to be used in the primary department of the Sunday School. Rev. E. T. Horn explained the meaning of the advent wreath and urged their own homes.

Susan Scharf reported on Mopsy Day held November 7 at Muhlenberg College, when 16 members attended the Muhlenberg-Albright football game, attended an organ recital in the college chapel, and had supper in the memorial hall with 3,000 Luther Leaguers from the northeast district.

A song fest and sock hop followed the supper. Susan said, reporting all the local members had enjoyed the day.

Koehler Talk On College Hailed By Stroud U. PTA

A capacity audience of Stroud Union Parent-Teachers Assn. parents heard Dr. LeRoy J. Koehler, president of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College speak at the meeting on Monday night and deluged him with questions about college preparation and cost afterward.

Dr. Koehler stressed the importance of deciding on the proper courses as early as Junior High School, and advised taking the college entrance examinations and arranging for interviews with college admissions officers in the Junior year in high school.

He also discussed criteria by which students are admitted to colleges on the basis of marks in the entrance examinations, their grades in high school and their personality.

In discussing the financial aspects of college, he said that a day student could get by with as little as $300 at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, but that of the 800 students applying last year only 300 were accepted. For boarding students the cost runs about $850 a year.

Costs in liberal arts colleges may run from $2,000 to $2,500 a year.

He also discussed the National Defense Act where talented students who need the help may borrow up to $5,000 for college and post-graduate study, and need not start paying back until a year after graduation. Graduates who stay in teaching for five years need only pay back $2,500, he said.

The provisions are made to prepare teachers, since half of the college graduates would need to go into teaching to fill the need, he said.

Mrs. Josef Wehe announced that there are now 426 members in Stroud Union PTA, almost 100 more than last year. Mrs. Andrew Kaiser announced the Know Your Schools project and ask for volunteers to help with the study.

Receive Merit Award
Highlight for the PTA was the presentation of an Honor Standard Merit Award from the state PTA, presented by Russell Pritchard, president of the Monroe County Council of Parents and Teachers.

The award, given for last year's programs and project was given to only 124 of the 1,367 PTA's in the state. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Mrs. A. V. Lupcho, chairman of the Meals for Millions project, reported a total collection of $191.28. Proceeds from the Blind Pig Auction were also added to this total. After a report from State Headquarters was read, showing that the local club is one of the few in the state without an entry in the Community Achievement Contest, the group decided to enter its "Meals for Millions" project in this event.

The resignation of Mrs. Charles Ehrhardt was accepted with regret.

'The Daily Investor'

First Investment

By William A. Doyle
Q. I am a young widow with five children. They are all in grammar school. My income is enough to get along on at present. I had $10,000 in the bank and decided to invest some toward the children's education and as a defense against inflation.

I bought 50 shares of Brooklyn Union Gas and 100 shares of Niagara Mohawk Power. Should I have been content with the bank interest?

A. If you wanted absolute safety of dollars and the assurance that your dollars would always be available—without any fear of William A. Doyle risk—you should have kept the money in a bank account.

But, since you wanted to build for the kids' education, plus your future and theirs, you did what seems to be a very smart thing.

You invested to two high-grade stocks — stocks that have shown steady (but not spectacular) growth over the years, stocks that show every promise of continuing to outpace inflation over the long haul and that provide a good dividend return.

By buying stocks in a gas utility company and an electric utility company you have made a very sensible choice. Solid utilities such as these are a wise and conservative first investment.

Q. Can you help settle an argument? How many shares of stock does General Motors have outstanding? How much of the GM stock is owned by Du Pont?

A. At last count, General Motors had 280,910,398 shares of common stock outstanding (not counting treasury shares held for bonus purposes).

E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. owns approximately 23 percent of the outstanding GM stock.

Q. I own 58 shares of Rochester Telephone common stock. Can you explain why it just "lays there" and never increases in price?

A. This stock sold as low as $8 in 1949. It was quoted as high as 30 1/2 ($30.375 a share) earlier this year but has since dropped somewhat.

Do you call that just "laying there"? Right now, the stock isn't considered a hot growth item. But it's far from dead. It is rated as having a well-balanced capital structure, consistently solid earnings power and favorable prospects for the future. Just don't expect too much, too soon.

Q. I understand most bonds. But can you tell me what a "collateral trust bond" is?

A. It's a bond secured by collateral deposited with a trustee. The collateral might be stocks or bonds or other companies controlled by the company which issued the collateral bond. Or the collateral might be any other security the company issuing the collateral trust bond owns.

Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.

Labor Unions Must File Information

THE U. S. Labor Department announced yesterday that forms for the organizational report required of all unions by the new Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act are now available at the department's local office at 505 Wyoming Blvd., 19-27 N. Main St., Wilkes-Barre.

Every labor organization must file such a report with the Commissioner, Bureau of Labor Management Reports, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., to be post-marked not later than midnight, Dec. 14.

The reports must include copies of the union's constitution and by-laws, plus information on initiation and other fees charged members.

Also required is information on procedures used in establishing qualifications for membership, benefit plans, methods of dealing with financial questions, selection of officers, authorization for approval of collective bargaining demands and other operations of labor organizations.

The Labor Department said the report forms are available in a packet consisting of six copies along with instructions. The original and one completed copy of the report form, together with attachments must be sent to Washington.

OFF THE RECORD

By Bob Clark
Sports Editor

BEN JONES, former Stroudsburg resident, is making good in a big way at Berwick High School.

Jones, an East Stroudsburg Teachers graduate who later took post-graduate work at Maryland University, last week was signed to a new two-year contract to coach Berwick's varsity football team.

Ben is just completing his first year at Berwick and molded the down state eleven into an eight-win and only two-loss team.

By this record and other unexcelled marks in the school history, school board members tore up Ben's one-year pact and inked the Pocono Mountain native to a new two-year contract.

The success of Jones this year stems from many points. First and naturally was Berwick's outstanding record on the gridiron.

Second was the statistics to show that the Bulldog eleven was not just made up of brawn. A first marking period report showed that Berwick High grid players (43) compiled an average of 88.3 in their studies. This included a total of all subjects taken by the grid stalwarts.

In the "letter" department this means each player averaged in the "B" category.

A third point in favor of Jones resurgence at Berwick was that the school realized a profit of nearly $3,000 in football this season. Last year Berwick lost at the gate.

Despite rainy weather which kept attendance down and also the fact that the athletic committee bought and paid for new uniforms this year, it still was one of the biggest seasons at the gate in Berwick's history.

All of this was credited to Jones' showmanship and guidance which made Berwick into a crowd-pleaser and as such, turned the turnstiles at a faster rate than in many a moon.

Jones, who started out his sports career as a trainer for the now defunct Stroudsburg Poconos of the old North Atlantic League, will have many laurels heaped on him, staff and players in the near future.

A trip to see the Maryland-North Carolina college game is planned and also a banquet citing the Bulldogs is set for December.

Another revelation which shows the popularity of Jones was pointed out in Berwick's last game of the season against Coal Twp. last weekend. A drive had been under way to send the Bulldogs to training camp next year but the early results were far from a $2,000 goal needed to send the team away next August.

However, a move was set up to cover all fans who attended the Bulldogs last fray of the '69 campaign. The "take" showed Jones' magic name ten-fold when the entire $2,000 realized from the 3,000 attendees at the game.

This tribute alone will be one that Jones long will cherish. It typifies the magnetism power of a dedicated coach.

Jones' football coaching career goes back to the days when he coached winning teams at Brookville. He later tutored the grid sport at Lehigh and Gettysburg High. However, the high spot in his young stint has been at Berwick.

Here's what a few of the well-known personalities of that community think of him:

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS ELMER McKEE:—"He (Jones) has shown fine cooperative spirit and the willingness to share in many school duties."

FRANK BUFFONE, PRESIDENT OF BERWICK CITY COUNCIL:—"Coach Jones is a dedicated man and one I'm proud to know. He is not only a good coach but an outstanding teacher."

BOB REDCLIFF, OF THE SCHOOL'S ATHLETIC COUNCIL:—"When Jones was hired he was elected over a number of applicants not because he was just an outstanding coach but because he also was a man. He (Jones) has lived up to those two qualifications well since coming here."

Apparently Jones is sitting on top of the world in Berwick. May he hold this top perch for a long, long time.

British Fighter's Pilot Sees Boy Beating Brown

By FRANK ECK
AP Sports Writer

DAVE CHARNLEY, British lightweight champion and a boxer by trade, and Arthur Boggis, a butcher by trade and a fighter manager by design, believe Joe Brown will be relieved of the world's lightweight title in Houston on Wednesday, Dec. 2.

"Dave is only 24 and Brown is 33," Boggis began in a clipped British accent when he and Charnley stopped off in New York for six hours on their way to Texas. "We've never seen Brown except on television when he beat Gale Kerwin, and he's never seen us."

"But we'll surprise him. Dave is a good fighter, a hustling fighter who is always punching. I don't believe in this punch and run business so Dave does a lot of leading with his right. He does everything right-handed but boxes southpaw style."

Let Brown See

"I'm not telling you his best punch. Let Brown find out. Incidentally, Brown may have had it. He's kind of old for a champion, don't you think?"

The brown-eyed Charnley, a well-built 5-foot-6 with black hair and an unmarked face, accepted everything his manager had said.

For a man in the butcher shop business, Boggis abhors blood, especially in the ring.

"Dave never cuts, and he's never been knocked down," Boggis exclaimed. "I tried to turn him around to box right-handed but it didn't work. He's been taught to box rather than fight, but he has a good punch. I like to see a man slip around punches and ward off blows with his gloves. That's what Dave does."

"I hate to see a man take punches in the face."

Face Shy
Except for his cute button nose it looks like Charnley never has.

"No, my nose has never been

Trojans' McKeever Twins Named AP Linemen Of Week

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIKE AND MARLIN McKEEVER, Southern California's controversial twins, have been named "linemen of the week" in the Associated Press poll for their play against Baylor.

The McKeever twins were outstanding as unbeaten Southern California won its eight straight, downing Baylor 17-3 to hold the No. 4 position among the nation's major powers.

With the McKeever twins leading the charge, Southern Cal held Baylor to a total of three yards on the ground. Time after time they broke through to throw Baylor backs or potential passers for a loss.

A check of the films and notes of observers showed the McKeever twins were in on 25 tackles in 72 defensive scrimmages. Mike, the left guard, made 13 tackles. Marlin, the right end, made 12.

Mike almost single-handedly threw Ronnie Stanley, the Baylor quarterback, for five losses that totaled 39 yards. He was involved in a bitter controversy in early November when the California coach charged he deliberately injured halfback Steve Bates.

Soph End Lauded
Gary Collins, a sophomore end at Maryland, also drew praise for an outstanding effort in the 28-25 upset of Clemson. Collins caught three passes for 80 yards including two for touchdowns. He made a sensational grab of a 17-yard pass from Dale Petty for the winning score with about three minutes to go.

4th Straight Week
Syracuse has been tops in total offense four straight weeks, and has been the most prolific scorer five weeks in a row. It now has taken over the rushing lead from North Texas State.

Stanford leads the forward passing department with an average of 208.6 yards per game. Syracuse is the only team averaging more than 400 yards a game, although Iowa has averaged 399.9. Syracuse has averaged 436.6 yards.

The 71 points the Orangemen scored against Colgate all but assured team scoring honors. They now have averaged 38.5, Mississippi and New Mexico State, with 31.9 and 30.3 respectively, are the only other teams registering more than 30 points per game.

Liberty 'Feels' Out Air Force

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Col. George Simler, director of athletics at the Air Force Academy, said Tuesday the Falcons have received a feeler about playing in the Liberty Bowl, a football game in Philadelphia Dec. 19.

"The game follows our exam week, so the likelihood of our accepting is rather remote," Simler said.

Air Force has a 5-2-1 record. It plays New Mexico in Denver Saturday.

Warns NF Teams About Cleats

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Acting Commissioner Austin Gunsel Tuesday directed National Football League teams to brush up on the section of the rules manual dealing with nylon cleats.

The commissioner's directive resulted from the rubarb Sunday in the Washington - Cleveland game. The Redskins objected to metal tips on the cleats of some Cleveland players.

Gunsel pointed out that nylon cleats are legal, but not metal tips.

Cavaliers, Mountaineers Start Drills

YESTERDAY East Stroudsburg high began drilling in earnest for their "Battle of the Boroughs" gridiron classic at Stroudsburg's Gordon Giffels Field, Thanksgiving Day morning.

The Cavaliers, under head coach Jack Kist, and the Mountaineers of Walter Bjorn will bring fairly high-scoring eleven into the battle. However Stroudsburg is in the throes of a losing season while East-burg already is assured of a winning campaign.

The Mountaineers have won three games, beating Lehigh, 21-19; Whitehall, 38-0; and Catawqua, 21-14. Stroudsburg has bowed to Emmaus, 13-7; Palermerton, 14-13; Pen Argyl, 6-0; Bangor, 19-14; Slatington, 12-0; and Northampton, 41-7.

Scored 120 Points
In posting a 3-6 record Stroudsburg has scored 120 points as against 138 tallied by the opposition.

East Stroudsburg has come out victorious in five games, beating Bangor, 12-7; Parkland, 33-6; Wilson, 6-0; Port Jervis, 47-12; and Nazareth, 21-0. The Cavaliers have dropped contests to Hellertown, 7-0; and Pen Argyl, 7-0. Kist's forces also were involved in two deadlocks—a 0-0 duel with Slatington and a 7-7 tie with Lehigh.

The Cavaliers in running up a 5-2-2 log have allowed the opposition 46 markers and have scored 126 themselves.

Heavy workouts are planned all this week by both eleven with an extra emphasis on each team's strong and weak points.

Both East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg have been scouted frequently by Kist or his aides and Bjorn or his assistants.

Cooper TKOs Erskine In 12th Round

LONDON (AP) — Henry Cooper, British and British Empire heavyweight champion, stopped challenger Joe Erskine of Wales Tuesday night in the 12th round with a vicious combination of punches that left the former titleholder sprawled between the ropes.

Cooper dropped Erskine twice for seven-counts before he finished him off at 2:35 in the 12th. Although Erskine was helpless after Cooper's final two-fisted attack and obviously was out for the count, Referee Eugene Henderson stepped in immediately after Erskine went down. He stopped the fight, so the result was a technical knockout.

Both Stopped By Swede
It was the second defense by Cooper, high-ranking challenger for Ingemar Johansson's world title. Both Cooper and Erskine had been stopped by Johansson before the Swede knocked out Floyd Patterson.

Cooper weighed 188½ to Erskine's 192½.

In finishing off Erskine, Cooper revealed a vicious killer streak never before seen in the 25-year-old champ.

It was a sensational fight throughout the 12 rounds with Cooper throwing the heavy punches while Erskine boxed brilliantly.

Denies Going To Minnesota

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin Football Coach Mitt Bruhn said Tuesday any reports that he's headed for a job at Minnesota are "completely unfounded."

Bruhn, a native of Minnesota and a football and baseball star for the Gophers in his collegiate days, made his statement when asked to comment on published reports he was sounded out about succeeding Murray Warmath, Minnesota coach.

Get Havana Bid

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Jacksonville State College Gamecocks have received a bid to play in a post-season football game in Havana, Cuba, next month. Dr. Houston Cole, president of Jacksonville State, said the invitation specified the Gamecocks would play one of the leading amateur teams of Havana between Dec. 5 and Dec. 10.

Michelsen Rates Penn State Second Best

By JOE BRADIS
PITTSBURGH (AP) — They're the No. 2 team in the country. . . two fine lines. . . a good defense. . . four outstanding linebackers. . . and they've got Richie Lucas. This was Pitt Coach Johnny Michelsen's appraisal of bowl-minded Penn State (8-1) which collides with the Panthers (5-4) Saturday at Pitt Stadium.

Michelsen singled out Lucas, the Nittany Lions' senior quarterback from Glassport, Pa. "He's always dangerous, always puts the pressure on you," said Michelsen.

No Surprise
His appraisal of Lucas didn't surprise the scouts, Penn State alumni or newsmen at the weekly Pitt luncheon meeting. Statistics on Lucas speak for themselves.

Lucas is the leader in total offense for the Lions with 1,184 yards, an individual offense record for one season. He's thrown 103 passes, completed 53 for five touchdowns. He can also kick, averaging 33.5 yards.

Penn State and Pitt have met only two similar opponents this season—West Virginia and Syracuse. The Lions romped over West Virginia 28-10 while Pitt lost to the Mountaineers 23-15.

Burrows Reelected To 5th PIAA Dist. 11 Head Term

EAST Stroudsburg High principal, Ralph O. Burrows, was reelected to his fifth term as chairman of Pennsylvania Interscholastic Association's District 11 at a meeting at Parkland High School.

The entire District 11 Executive Committee also was returned to office for another year along with Burrows. They are Bruce Henninger, Pine Grove; Herman Snyder, Slatington; Howard Jefferies, Lansford; Joseph Mamana, Easton; and James Reese, Allentown.

Representatives of the attending schools — 58 high schools and 11 junior highs — voted to reverse an amendment dealing with the eligibility of ninth grade pupils in junior senior or junior high schools, separately administered.

The new action permits these pupils to participate in the senior high school athletic program under certain conditions.

Passed 45-6
The proposal which was approved 45 to 6 reads:

1. Pupils enrolled in the ninth grade shall be eligible for interscholastic competition on teams of either the junior or the senior high schools, but the decision as to which school they shall represent must be made at the beginning of each sport season. No pupil may represent both the junior and senior schools during the same sport season.

2. If a pupil is enrolled in both the senior and junior high school, he shall be considered a member of the senior high school as soon as he carries out the least half of his work in the senior high.

3. If the pupil is ineligible for junior high school competition because of age regulations.

Crown Champs
District 11 officially crowned their champions in various sports the past year. Cited were East Stroudsburg, golf; Easton, baseball; Tamaqua, basketball, Class A; Weatherly, basketball, Class B; Jim Thorpe, basketball, Class C; Bethlehem, soccer; Allentown, swimming and wrestling; Bethlehem, tennis; Easton, track, Class A; and Hellertown, track, Class B.

Snyder, treasurer of District 11, reported a balance of $10,540.89 in the treasury.

New Evidence Reported In Boxing Probe

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional sleuths have uncovered evidence which a Senate committee counsel said Tuesday will produce startling disclosures at prize-fight hearings next year.

Big names from the ring and from the underworld will be drawn into the investigation as the Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee attempts to decide whether boxing needs a federal housecleaning.

Paul Rand Dixon, subcommittee lawyer, declined to name fighters who would be questioned but said the inquiry as planned would necessarily involve mysterious dealings behind the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title bout promotion last June.

Shady Characters
Names of shady characters already have come out in public investigations of the championship fight which Johansson won in New York. There has been no charge the bout itself was rigged.

The Antimonopoly subcommittee, headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), is the Senate group which has conducted hearings on big business aspects of professional sports. Its boxing inquiry is expected to open late next January.

Objects of the investigation are to determine whether boxing is controlled by a monopoly, criminal or otherwise, and whether a federal czar or agency should be created to supervise the sport.

Hayes Wins Grid Contest; Spragle 2nd

Jerry Hayes, Mt. Pocono, Pa., took first prize money this week in The Daily Record's Weekly Football Contest. Hayes picked 20 out of a possible 25 winners.

Dick Spragle, RD 2, Stroudsburg, came through again to take second prize by picking 19 out of a possible 25 games. Five other entries also picked 19 winning teams but Spragle won by picking a high of 54 to be the most points scored by any participating team. 71 was the high score for the week.

There are two football contests to go this year. You will find one in today's Daily Record and next week's will be run on Monday, November 23rd. Next week's entries must be in or postmarked not later than Wednesday, 5 p.m., November 25th. The reason for this is that some of the contest games will be played on Thanksgiving Day. This week's entries, however, must be in by 5 p.m., Friday, November 20.

McCovey Eyes '60 As First Real Test

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Named National League rookie of the year, Willie (Stretch) McCovey of the San Francisco Giants looks forward to 1960 for his first real test.

"Next season should really show how I'll do in the big leagues," the 6-foot-4 first baseman said Tuesday.

Manager Bill Rigney has no such doubts.

"Watch him go in 1960," said Rigney. "He could be baseball's next 400 hitter."

Willie's choice for rookie honors was unanimous by the 24-member selection committee of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

Four-For-Four
He crashed into the majors July 30 with two triples and two singles in four times at bat, bringing the Giants out of a slump. He continued through 52 games to finish with a .354 average and 13 home runs.

"With the wind blowing into right field at Candlestick Park instead of to left as at Seals Stadium," Rigney said, "there's no telling what a lefty swinger of Willie's talents might do."

The Giants move next year to newly built Candlestick Park from Seals Stadium where they played since moving to San Francisco two seasons ago.

McCovey didn't find the jump from Class AAA ball in Phoenix, Ariz., to the National League too great. "The biggest difference is the pay," he chuckled.

Big Ten In Dither

CHICAGO (AP)—Big Ten football never has been in such a dither.

For the first time in history, a team is going to win or share the championship although losing as many as two conference games.

Since 1896, the title winner never has lost more than once, and 40 times it has gone through the conference season unbeaten and untied.

The final week of play finds the crown up for grabs among three twice-beaten outfits — Wisconsin, Northwestern and Michigan State. With contenders being knocked off as never before in the annual campaign, this also could be the first time a Big Ten team falls to place in the top 10 rankings of The Associated Press poll.

The balance in the conference never has been so thoroughly established. Possibly, this could be a result of the Big Ten's recruiting policy change of three years ago of granting financial aid based on need.

Some officials believe that under the plan, fewer high caliber players are being obtained and that the leveling off process may produce a more exciting better struggle but not necessarily better football. Or it may be a question of the better teams getting worse and the worse teams getting better.

Navy-AF In Gotham?

Women Urge Lifting Of Bible Ban

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Council of Republican Women Tuesday endorsed daily Bible reading in Pennsylvania public schools.

The resolution was passed at the concluding business session of the council's 37th annual convention. A recent U. S. District Court ruling upsets a state law authorizing the daily Bible reading.

Martin Speaks

In other action Edward Martin, former U. S. senator and governor of Pennsylvania, declared there should be as little government as possible, consistent with public safety.

"We cannot blame big government and expensive government on anyone if we do not do our full duty," he added. "Politics, next after the home, the church and the school, is the most important activity in America."

Fred C. Scribner Jr., undersecretary of the Treasury, told the women "Republican fortunes are on the rise."
